Public Speaking.

Hon. John R. Allen, candidate for Congress, will speak at the court house Monday afternoon (court day) at two o'clock. Mr. Allen is a splendid orator and will doubtless be heard by a large crowd.

Political Talk.

The Chicago platform Democrats of New York will hold a State convention at Albany May 19.

Attorney General Breckinridge enjoys the distinction of being the only State officer in Kentucky whose title is not in litigation. Judge Clifton J. Pratt, the Republican contestee, as anticipated several days ago quit the contest.

The death of State Senator John A. Bell, of Union county, and Representative Lout, of Woodford county, and the resignation of Senator Harrell make three vacancies in the Legislature to be filled next November.

Congressman June Gayle, of the seventh district, when questioned at Lexington as to his being a candidate to succeed himself, said: "I am rather inclined to think that I will not make the race, but have not declared myself out of it. It depends on circumstances. I have the interest of the party at heart, and if it wants me I am willing to run."

The Kentucky Press.

The Harrodsburg Democrat has been bought by a stock company and will be run as a free silver paper.

Carl W. Musser, a well-known young man of Cynthiana, has bought the Cynthiana Times from F. W. Norris, who established the paper sixteen years ago.

The Columbia Printing Co. has been incorporated at Frankfort, by E. W. Lillard and Reed Nicholas, with $7,000 capital stock. It will establish a new Democratic paper at Danville.

A Baptist Event.

The Church Annual Day was observed Friday by the congregation of the Baptist Church. In the afternoon reports of the officers were received and the old officers were re-elected. Walter Clarke was elected a deacon in place of Robert Ferguson, deceased. A bountiful supper was served at six o'clock and at half-past seven a pleasing musical program was rendered. The program included two choruses by the choir, two solos by Miss Blanche Hudson, duet by Mrs. Cheek and Mrs. Walter Clarke, duet by Rev. Eberhardt and Ray Clarke, solo by W. M. Goodloe, instrumental number by Mr. Albert Mitchell, and a quartet by Mrs. Cheek, Mrs. Clarke, Rev. Eberhardt and Ray Clarke.
